Buy your school books of A. W. Pyatt & Co. Their stock is complete, and their prices such as defy successful competition.

For a good shave for ten cents, a good hair cut for twenty-five cents, go to Henry Schick's barber shop, No. 142 Commercial Avenue.

We want a pressman—a young man who is willing to work in the job office when not employed in the press-room. The cylinder presses will occupy about half his time, the balance of his time can be utilized in some other department.

MATTERS OF LOCAL IMPORT.

—An adjourned meeting of the city council will be held this evening.

—Joel G. Morgan, whose death was announced yesterday, was 43 years of age.

—Thomas' majority over Allen, as figured up by the Thomas men, is 663, which is a gain of about 200 over the vote of 1876.

—The Rough and Readies wish it generally understood, that they propose giving a grand ball on New Year's eve. The details will be arranged soon, and made public.

—Mr. Jack Hodges cyphers up his majority at 351 votes, which is the largest majority obtained by any candidate for the office of sheriff, in this county, for several years.

—Another day without a single criminal case in our police courts. The time is at hand, apparently, when tramps and naturally vicious persons stubbornly refuse to violate the law, and other folks have forgotten how.

—We have on hand the manuscript of a poem entitled, "The Voice of the Post-Office," the author of which is unknown. It is a beautiful composition, and will appear in the BULLETIN to-morrow.

—The attendance upon our public schools is not, by any means full, owing to the apprehensions of parents that it is not entirely safe for hundreds of children, from different parts of the city, to congregate. The present apparently established health of the city will soon dissipate these apprehensions.

—A crazy woman was placed in our county jail, yesterday, to await the train of the Illinois Central railroad. She was from Carmi, and in charge of friends, was en route for the Anna asylum. She was a woman, apparently forty years of age, and owes her insanity to female sickness. She was a most pitiable object.

—Young Mahoney, who was named as one of the recent victims of the yellow fever, is again on his feet, but little the worse in appearance or otherwise from the ordeal to which he was subjected.

—No market in the country is supplied with more toothsome fresh fish than Cairo. The finest species of fish that swim our lakes and rivers, are brought to market, alive and flopping, every day.

—Blocks and screws are being placed under Mrs. Phillips' two dwelling houses, immediately above the Hibernian engine house, for the purpose of straightening up the buildings and repairing them. Sumner and Baird are the bosses.

—No cases of sickness reported at headquarters yesterday, and diligent inquiry assured us that there were none to report. The only case under treatment now, is that of Mrs. Sweeney. The others may be considered beyond all possible danger—or, in fact, quite recovered.

—The Cairo Temperance Reform Club resume their weekly meetings this evening. The new officers are to be installed, some important business transacted, and a number of short addresses. All members of the club and friends of temperance are expected to be present.

—The forest leaves seem loth to leave their parent stems, though seared by frost and yellow. Usually, at this time of the year the trees of our forests are as bare of such adornments as a Louisville editor is of a disposition to cling to the truth, if he can substitute a—prevarication.

—Hon. J. R. Thomas, our congressman elect, was in the city yesterday, feeling good in every muscle, nerve and fibre of his rather extensive corporeal structure. He thinks that his majority will reach 600 votes, for at least 400 of which he may thank the leading Democrats of Randolph county.

—The announcement that Mrs. Ida Melner, late Winsor, has again entered the married estate, this time with Mr. Ransom Sampson, who is connected with our river interests, will interest somebody, and hence we make it. The marriage was consummated sometime ago; but owing to the BULLETIN's suspension, the fact was not made public.

—As the returns from Hazlewood had not been received at the court house at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon the work of canvassing the vote of the county had not been commenced. As, after that time, it was impossible to complete the canvassers' work in time to permit of the publication of the official returns in tabular form, we were compelled to go to press without them.

—We hear intimations that a young Cairo gentleman went up the Illinois Central, a day or two since, and will, to-day, be made "one flesh" with a handsome and sprightly young lady who, once upon a time, was a resident of Cairo. If this be so, we are ready to offer congratulations over the happy consummation, or offer an apology for this notice, or do anything else that is reasonable.

—On Wednesday morning Mr. John Cook was taken with a chill, and was compelled, for a time, to close the doors of his business house. Straightway it became noised abroad that Cook was down with the fever. But the impression thus created, was of short duration. The chill passed off, the closed doors were re-opened, and Cook took his place behind his counter, where we saw him yesterday, sound as a new legal-tender dollar.

—The fourth-warders and others who patronize Jimmy Kynaston may depend upon a continued supply of the choice pork he has been accustomed to furnish them. The drove of fat hogs seen on Washington avenue yesterday, will, as the demands of trade require, hang upon the hooks of his shop, and be doled out, in quantities to suit his multitude of customers. They were as fine a lot of porkers as one can see anywhere.

—We should like to know—not with the view or hope of increasing the sale of the articles, but for other reasons—if anybody in Cairo who wore the Holman Liver Pad, was attacked by yellow fever. They were recommended as a preventative. If they sustained the recommendation, the public should be made acquainted with the fact, that everybody who may hereafter be thrown within the circle of the epidemic may resort to their use. On the other hand, if they proved of no service as a preventative, it is almost of equal importance that that fact be made known, that persons who can ill afford the expenditure, be not compelled, through impulses begotten of fear, to purchase and wear them.

—Jay Bee, the well known correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce, writes as follows concerning the Extravaganza of "Evangeline," to be presented in this city to-morrow evening: "I tell Rice and Goodwin, with tears in my eyes, it ain't wicked enough; it's altogether to good. There is positively nothing in it to which the most fastidious can take exception, and to this I take exception. So I warn Goodwin and Rice if they ever again produce a work so thoroughly irreproachable in text and melody, they have no excuse whatever; let them look to it!" There can be no question about it: The piece is an exquisitely funny

American opera bouffe, perfectly inexecutable in moral tone, and embracing all the fun and humor essential to success among the millions who don't object to a hearty laugh.

—Marriage license were issued Wednesday, authorizing the solemnization of the matrimonial tie between Mr. Lee Boiscourt and Mrs. Perry Powers—second wife of Perry Powers, deceased. The knot was tied, and Mrs. P. became Mrs. E., and Mr. B. the proprietor of the livery and feed stable, the business of which he had previously supervised. The BULLETIN extends good wishes.

—Mr. R. Fitzgerald was elected to the office of Coroner, on Tuesday last, by a very decided majority. As his principal opponent was the accepted Republican nominee, and, in Cairo, at least, received the support of fully five-sixths of his party friends, Mr. F.'s success may be esteemed as a high personal compliment. The only Republican nominee that failed to carry the county was Mr. Fitzgerald's opponent.

—The term of Mr. McKenig's service in the Cairo postoffice expires next month. The salary—two thousand dollars a year—forms a plum that will be knocked down by the "longest pole," but who, among our prominent Republicans has possession of the pole? McKenig, Hughes, Wright and Close will doubtless be contestants for the prize, but which one of the quartette will secure it? We are quite confident we know; but are resolved to keep our own counsel. We desire that the several applicants indulge, yet awhile, the pleasures of anticipation.

—Thanksgiving day, yesterday, was observed by a large number of our citizens. The services at church called out an audience of respectable size, and a number of our business men closed their places of business. Lest some of our distant readers form the conclusion that we are taking time by the forelock in this thanksgiving business, we feel called upon to say that the day was observed under the suggestion of the mayor, that our citizens might give expression to their thanks that so many escaped the deadly epidemic which we can, now, happily regard as a terror of the past.

—Whatever shortcomings, omissions or commissions may be charged to the account of Sheriff Saup in other respects, it must be confessed that, as collector of our revenue, he exercised considerable diligence, and paid over the money to the parties authorized to receive it, with a promptness that was highly commendable. The money due the State and the several school treasurers of the county, was not permitted to lie in bank; but was paid over as fast as collected. School officers and school teachers appreciate promptness in that particular, and hence all of them have a good word to say for Collector Saup.

—Fred. Koehler & Co.'s steamboat meat shop is constantly supplied with the choicest beef, pork, etc., that are brought to the Cairo market. Fred's experience of years has taught him that the very best meats he can buy are not too good for steamboats and Cairo hotels. His supply yesterday embraced six or eight hogs, sheep, etc., equal to any demand that was likely to be made upon him. He has, in his time, slaughtered more hogs and calves, etc., than any man in Southern Illinois, and is yet to be said of him that he ever put a piece of meat upon our market that was not strictly merchantable. Old Joe Able is solicitor for and assistant in the establishment, and will do all that any other man could do to enlarge its business. Joe is popular among the river men, and is certain to command a liberal, if not the lion's share of all the river patronage in his line, that is bestowed upon Cairo.

—Mr. Geo. W. Sammons, in whose behalf many of our sovereigns worked with considerable zeal, last Tuesday, was beaten for the office of county commissioner, by a majority of 32 or 40 votes. As the returns came in he was alternately elated and depressed. Over the result in Cairo he felt bad; but the returns from Thebes, Goose Island and Unity put him in good cheer again. He was 30 or 40 votes ahead, with Hazelwood, where he felt sure of a good vote, to hear from. But his expectations were not realized. Hazelwood "went back on him." His majority of 30 or 40 was overcome there, and a like majority piled up for Briley! The blow was a severe one; and although our sheriff-elect offered to comfort him, George utterly refused to be comforted. He was beaten, he said, and would "enjoy" the humiliation and disappointment of his defeat, as much as suited him. But defeated as he is, George is not crushed. Next year he will be a county commissioner again.

O. HAYTHORN & Co. have the largest stock of boots and shoes in the city.

WANTED—A stout boy to run a Gordon press. Apply at THE BULLETIN office.

A young gentleman wants a good room and room-mate. Address "B," care of BULLETIN office.

LETTIE COLEMAN'S LAUNDRY.
Mrs. Lettie Coleman has reopened her laundry on Fourth street, between Washington and Commercial avenues, and takes this method of informing her old friends and patrons that she is again at their services, and solicits their patronage. She has reduced prices to suit the times.

—The manner in which old Thoraton Dillon is knocked about, cuffed and beaten by the boys of the city, some of them verging on the estate of manhood, is simply shameful. He visited THE BULLETIN office yesterday, and exhibited a bruised face and punctured scalp, declaring that they were the fruits of an assault made upon him the day before, by three or four up-town boys, one of whom used a slung-shot. He declared that he had sworn out a warrant for the offending parties, and that three of our conservators of the peace had refused to serve it—giving as a reason for the refusal that they were too busy. Dillon is an old, white-headed man; probably seventy-five years old. He is confessedly a blatherskite, and may be a liar and troublesome neighbor; but we know of nothing in his character or in his methods of dealing with others that could warrant such a fierce assault as he avers was lately made upon him. His age, and old white head should protect him, let his old tongue wag as it may; and if he can't obtain the protection the law guarantees, the public should know why.

LABORING men should see our $2.00 and $2.50 boots. They are bargains.
O. HAYTHORN & Co.

THE parents and guardians of school children should bear in mind that A. W. Pyatt & Co. keep every description of school books used in the public schools in Cairo, and offer them at prices that should have a controlling influence with economical buyers.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

DIED.—In Cairo, Ill., Oct. —, 1878, Sam'l Neceley, a member of Coopers' Union, No. 9, of Illinois.

At a regular meeting the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, It has pleased God, in His infinite wisdom to remove from our midst our late brother, Samuel Neceley.

Resolved, That in his death Coopers' Union No. 9, of Illinois, has lost a true and faithful member.

Resolved, That we tender our heartfelt sympathy to the family of our deceased brother in this, the hour of their affliction, and would direct them to Him who alone can give consolation.

Resolved, That we drape our charter in mourning for the space of thirty days, as a slight token of respect for our lost brother.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing resolutions be published in the city papers, and a copy of said papers be sent to the family of our deceased brother.
